(10/14) the feeling of revenge
(10/20) revolver or stretcher?
(10/22) your crushed dreams
Study Guide #'s 1-12
(10/22) the unexpected friend
(10/26) coping with the unbearable
(10/29) comfort zone
(10/29) sacrifice
(10/30) "They are different men here, men I cannot properly understand, whom I envy and despise" (169)
(11/5) When have you been in a situation when there was so much you wanted to say, but you didn't? It was too difficult, too overwhelming.
(11/5) What was foreshadowed at the end of chapter seven?
(11/10) From Paul's perspective what did it feel like to stab the French man?
(11/12) When have you been at a point in your life where things are going so good that you feel like things are going to blow up in your face?
(11/12) From crops perspective why would he rather put an end is to his life then live as a cripple?

(11/17) When has 'the weapon of instinct' saved you?
(11/18) From Paul's perspective, what does it do to your psyche to have everyone around you losing hope?
(11/18) "The attacking lines of the enemy infantry are men like ourselves; but these tanks are machines, their caterpillars run on as endless as the war [...] they roll without feeling"

(11.41). In this sense, the machine has won. Dehumanization is almost complete. Compare the victory of the machine during the war to the victory of machine over our lives today.
(11/18) "Summer of 1918" will always have a hold on Paul. What time period, year or day will always have a hold over you?
(11/18) Who has Paul lost over these last three years?
(11/19) If you like the ending, elaborate on the original. If you didn't like it, change it!
